ROANNE L. MANN, CHIEF UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE:

At a conference held on May 30, 2019, this Court made a settlement proposal to counsel for the parties and directed them to respond to the undersigned's chambers as to whether their clients were willing to accept the Court's settlement proposal, without speaking to opposing counsel until the process was completed. Both counsel are admonished for failing to follow this Court's directive that they not discuss settlement until they have responded to the Court's settlement proposal. Although counsel for plaintiff reported that she has been unable to reach her client, plaintiff's counsel is further admonished for failing to respond to the Court's proposal or to seek an extension of time to respond. Counsel for plaintiff must file a sworn statement by June 7, 2019, detailing their efforts to contact the plaintiff and identifying the last time they communicated with plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
